"Saying Goodbye"

Saying goodbye baby is hard to do
Especially harder when I say it to you
Seeing you stand there with the tears in your eyes
I give you that last kiss and you started to cry
And even though we've been apart before
I've never got use to this feeling at all
Seeing you stand there as I walk away
You say you love me in a sweet crying face

[Chorus]

Oh I love you, I love you, I love you too
And I hate to, I hate to, to say goodbye
Seeing you stand there with tears in your eyes
It breaks my heart to say goodbye

Time has come for me to go away
I'll know I'll miss you every night and day
Thousands of miles I'll be a distant from you
A million more times I'll be thinking of you
And even though we've been apart before
I've never got use to this feeling at all
Seeing you stand there as I walk away
You say you love me in a sweet crying face

Saying goodbye baby is hard to do
Especially harder when I say it to you
Seeing you stand there with the tears in your eyes
I give you that last kiss and you started to cry
And even though we've been apart before
I've never got use to this feeling at all
Seeing you stand there as I walk away
You say you love me in a sweet crying face

[Chorus 2x]
