I don't understand this should be so easy to just reach out my hand and know the world is real but nothings as it seems now I can tell you freely touching's not the only way to feel

(Chorus:)
When the rain falls
it's like heavens crying when the names all the difference that there is cause tears are the same when they are trying to grow something good out of all the pain hey there's no difference between the teardrops and the rain

I know you probably say that I'm just talking crazy to think of life that way means that I'm confused

There's happy and there's sad, but maybe, yes, just maybe, the sadness can make the happiness more true

(Chorus once)

Because I know the boths are nessasary, I don't let it bother me at all

(Chorus once)
