Cause ya cut it ya match it ya cut it ya match it
you do the final cut yea

cause it's a manifest destiny like a genocide recipe telling lords that wrestle me to free my own race challenge your god and dominate all your palace dont underestimate the fate of a preordained mass where are my boots and where the hell is my balance the hell you did come down from your palace to see a sharp suspicion a cocking of a gun oh come if you're gunna get some cause forty seconds later and the cocking of a gun a boy avoids confusion and his special agent scum two officers pushed a boy down on his back searched through his pockets found a vile of crack yea nothin can be done for this boy untainted its a typical mythical world we live in untaint me un-sane me, un-lay me Go into the river 'cause i think i'm damn ready

There is a river where riverbed should be
There is a river where riverbed should be

I'd like to jettison your medicine back to where you came from you keep your bell and edison away from my grandson stand son on your own bone dont forget the home that you came from dont let em say your name wrong Just like larry ill take it to the hoop i do a false move in one fell swoop and than i then i pass it to the trigger man bow down to the sound if you still can cause there's plenty of catcalls and plenty of misfalls and i can attest to the rest of the best falls never have i ever made a match with a sickness look both ways dispatch with a quickness gimmie some roy, gimmie some speed gather all around to the word and read on till you get to the parts that's righteous it's an unbearable likeness

There is a river where riverbed should be
my name is chetro and i do know that i gotta get some money to get the van towed his name is braddigan and i'm back again i wanna be the three with the tight plan his name is pete repeat pete's got the goods spanking on my bass like i know i should lost in the draw for the freak and groove relax and relapse let's synapse this move
