Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again
Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again

Does anybody know this man?
Can Anybody understand
How long it is the road we've come to date?
Days now wrapped in silence
Wonder what is this violence
Keeps his mouth locked shut and tongue at bay

Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again
Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again

Senora i have a question,
You is there a lesson?
Story wrapped so tight, that you need to share
We've got the trusted ears of strangers
Escaped your recent dangers
So tell me what in this life we need be ware

Please excuse my insolence
I do nothing here to offend
Though my eyes don't blink, yes my mind does think
In you I found a friend

Please accept my innocence
I do nothing more this day
When I was lost, you were the cost I that I knew would surely pay

Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again
Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again

Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again
Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again

Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again
Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again

Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again
Fallin', I am fallin' down the mountain, once again
