Chorus:]

What will we do to become famous and dandy
just like Amos 'n' Andy

(2x)

It's quite a spectacle to see us land in waste receptacles

as if we've planned it

We're never skeptical

when we get branded

Then disrespectful

cause we feel abandoned

The height of mediocrity is the challenge

Crawling through the entrails of imbalance

We learn to like to be the heroes

We learn to lie to the brand name negroes

We learn to laugh to avoid being angry

We learn to kill and learn to go hungry

We learn not to feel, for protection and we learn to flaunt when we get an erection

[Chorus:]

just like Amos 'n' Andy

(2x)

We're born believing we're greater than circumstance

Infinitely stronger than chance

As our first breath is handed

We taste the double standard

the need to wear the mask

And with society's nurturing

The psychic plastic surgery begins to take effect

As our souls watch astounded

Our characters flounder

duplicitous identity

Diction and contradiction

have become the skills of assimilation

Razor honed to perfection

From the moment of creation It's gone from identity crisis
To survival slingshot to rifle Sin to revival Try to get looked at but not poked in the eyeball Warned of our impurities Afraid of insecurities Real life experts of the artificial Athletes and entertainers have become the minstrels on commercials
[Chorus:]
(2x)
On screen or off we can be rented to perform any feat
And we reflect the images presented by the media's elite Positive or negative attention is viewed as success U.S.D.A. African American Beef is seen as progress
We never ask ourselves too many questions too much thruth in introspection Maintain the regimentation and avoid self-degradation
We act out all the stereotypes Try to use them as decoy and we become shining examles of the system we set out to destroy Cause even in the most radical groups you will find that when you stray from the doctrine you'll see hard times
[Chorus:]
(2x)
Being kicked in the mouth or smiling with no teeth They're both choices, yes but it's impossible to eat Uneducated, underdeveloped Undisciplined but mostly unaware We join the flavor of the month club
We swallow the flavor of the month Well holding our crotch
was the flavor of the month

Bitch this Bitch that
Being a thug
Then no to drugs
Kangol
Rope gold
Adidas shoes
Then bashing Jews
Gentrification
Isolation
My pockets are so empty I can feel my testicles cause I spent all my money on some plastic African necklaces and I still don't know what the colors mean...
RED, BLACK AND GREEN
[Chorus:]
(4x
