"Mindlock"

Bunch of fucking mindless goons
We must rid the senseless fear and
Dare to evacuate your shell
Trendy fucks go to hell
We must break free of cliques and Insurgents, outcasts, not allowed
Well fuck you and your limited thought
Your individuality?s shit

CH: No more mindlock

Why can?t you think on your own
True feelings never shown
Don?t be afraid to speak your mind
Leave your fears behind
Why can?t you think for yourself
Instead of following everyone else
Take your rules that are so crass
And show them up your ass

Fashions chains bind you together
Ruining sense of creativity
You?re drowning in your peers believes
Stricken to conformity
