Lyrics: NÅ¶dtveidt/SÅrkkiÅ

Pain, plague an pestilence shall sweep through your sight

Grim is the truth that hides behind the fading light

The eyes of the beholder stares empty silent and cold

For the deeds of the dark ones are fearful to behold

Chorus:

With lifted dreadful swords we swear allegiance to our lord

We're the unhallowed usurpers of the throne

Dusk will bring the gathered ones upon the feeble men of god

Superior mighty warriors of pure unhallowed blood

Shoulder to shoulder they reign in the darkest of nights

Together at the edge of time, brought forth to slay the light

Thy majesty - our majesty

Sole superior evil itself

We'll be your instrument

And the blade of their damnation

So futile humas on the knees for the satanized

Burning high at the stakes with the love of christ

Do not rest in peace, may your souls all burn black

Your sons and daughters I will kiss....with a poisoned smile

Sing out the pain of your roots that you cannot deny

And we'll crush your worthless prayers of the weak forgotten lie

The apocalypse is here, oh fools of the withering sky

Encounter darkness as you fall into the endless fire

The jaws of darkness, open wide, lost souls scream out in vain

All will writhe eternity's perpetual infernal pain

Chorus:

With lifted dreadful swords we swear allegiance to
our lord

We're the unhallowed usurpers of the throne
