Oh its set in 1848 in the crush of New York state and the thing about destiny is it never ever makes mistakes

Susan B. Anthony
Forever haunting me Owned raped sold thrown A woman was never her own

They cried freedom rise up for me

I want i want i want freedom
Oh its set in 1848 in the crush of New York state and the thing about destiny is it never ever sets you free

Elizabeth Cady
Forever reminding me
I dont steal the air i breathe

Freedom rise up for me
