"The Hunger"

Holy eyes, I never knew I'd beg down at your feet Hold on tight, I never knew I'd know much more than this
Open sky, the wave of pain, the scent of you is bliss
Hungry eyes, they stare at me...
I know, I know...
Don't go...

Summertime, the taste of saint secretes and perfume
mist
Console the mind, I take it in with lips of pink I kiss Lonely sky, the more you take the more that I give in Holy eyes, I never knew, I know, I know...
Don't go...

Hold onto the memory, it's all you've got
I know you'll be there to soak up blood lost, blood lost,
blood loss.

Don't go...
Hold onto the memory, it's all you've got
I know you'll be there to soak up blood lost, blood lost,
blood loss.
