Wait for me as the ship it sails away so fast,bring me home and I will stay,I promise.

For tomorrow it has been retold and realized,I will conquer my demise.

We are skatin' on thin ice and i'm afraid i'll fall.

Cuz I have stayed up all night long tellin' myself it's okay,but you've been flirtin' with the wrong guy,so please come and make my day.

Inocence is the one thing that brought us together.I guess it tore us apart.

Didn't realize what we had when we were together.We should start to make a start.

We are skatin' on thin ice and i'm afraid i'll fall.When will the day come when I will stand up and finally hear my call.

Cuz I have stayed up all night long tellin' myself it's okay,but you've been flirtin' with the wrong guy,so please come and make my day.

Whoa cuz you,you are a wreck.And I am a mess.And we've been together way too long and I don't think we should quit.

Cuz I have stayed up all night long tellin' myself it's okay,but you've been flirtin' with the wrong guy,so please come and make my day.

Well,you have stayed up oh all night long tellin' yourself it's okay and I have waited here,cryin' like a baby waiting for another day.
