I'm looking forward to something that's already happened
I'm sitting with anticipation feet are tapping
Nothing's more, but nothing's less
Nothing's for the best
Relax and whistle while you can

Simply confused could surely explain what I am now Trying everything time and logic could allow It seems everything that is yours clearly should be mine
But it'll have to take some time
'Cause I don't deserve the worst in life
It's exploitation on you soul but do you really care
It's contemplation in your head do morals rip and tear
Nothing's more, but nothing's less
Nothing's for the best
Relax and whistle as you wait for cardiac arrest

It's exploitation on you soul but do you really care
It's contemplation in your head do morals rip and tear
Appreciation for the things they took away today
If you sincerely cared than tell me what you'd say
Tell me what'd you'd say

'Cause I don't deserve the worst in life
