Endless suffering!

You've made a monster of me,
Through all your wicked lies,
Forever tortured by you,
Abandoned at death's door.

Until I say no more!
Don't look away, you're just a former regret of mine!
And when you won't just look away, you're just a former regret of mine!
Erasing now!

You've made a rock star of me,
Gave me this wicked life,
Hate to be tortured by you,
A life I now abhor.

And still I say no more!
(Chorus)

Think over all of the shit in your mind,
Think over and come to grips with it,
Think over all of the shit in your little twisted sick mind,
All said!
(Repeats)

(Chorus)

You've made a monster of me!

(Chorus)
