I am alone because you left me
You were free and living in merriment
But you're not quite so happy to me
We belong to each other's circle

Before, is the greatest
You do it to give it to me
You serve for ourselves
We go what life gives us

They were mad
I'm not suited to them
I'm sitting, they're standing
They grip but I hold tight

Whatever move I do
It's always a failure
They saw the ugliness
We are all ugly

You are poor because you love me
I am always waiting
The rain is a new challenge
I wanna shout
