Verse 1

You think I'm stupid and I cannot see
But all your lies find their way back to me
Your words stay with me and they'll never leave
You can't comeback cos' now it's too late

Pre-Chorus

Your honesty in question
The sum of my frustration
Integrity means nothing to the likes of you

Chorus

You used me for a place to hide
From the thoughts that screamed inside your mind
Wanted me to take it all away
I won't lie down for those you desolate

Verse 2

So many choices that you just abused
Your ego's grown there is no room for you
How many times must I turn blind eye
And rebuild bridges that you burned behind
Repeat Pre-Chorus and Chorus

Bridge

When your friends leave you behind
And your finally forced to see yourself
Tell me what do you see?
That you never been a friend
You used the word just to protect yourself
From what you've got coming
You think that is just a game
And all around you are just stepping stones
Here to get you farther
I think it's time you felt the weight
Of your inactions as it brings you down
Through your hate
Repeat Pre-Chorus and Chorus
