Verse 1

Thankless, hateful to the world
Tired, to ignorant to take what's free
Walk out on me, afraid to see the things I see
No more bullshit, I'm only taking what you give

Chorus

I know, somethings coming
You'll see your free ride is ending
I know, what you're thinking
You've no confidence in me

Verse 2

Liar, satisfy yourself
Shamless, so many things you'll never be
Last man chosen, watching others find their way Cast your hopes in, and have them spit back in your face

Bridge

Asking for nothing and getting even less 2X
