Got lost along the way
Something inside me seems to fade
Staring at your soiled face
Wondering, out of place
~C~
One day older
Still the same
I can't follow
Your leading blame
I can't swallow
All my pride
Can't hide longings
For the pain
I try to look away
Your simple mind always seems to stray
Walking through the open flames
Never burned, never changed
~C~
I can't run from my pain
Go away
I'm so tired of this pain
Go away 2x
~C~
