Verse 1

Now I know what you're after
You only see one side to life
Compromise my situation
You don't see cos' you're so damn blind

Chorus

What are you so afraid to find?
What's inside you just cannot hide
I have the hope that you will deny
So I will walk away, walk away, walk away
(That you will deny)

Verse 2

You try so hard to justify

Blame everyone but yourself so you're right
No faith in your own existence
You trust no one so I won't even try

Repeat Chorus

Verse 3

Try and try to make me want to (Make me want to)
Want to learn and find what's real
It's over I cannot take you (Cannot take you)
Take what you think I deserve

Repeat Chorus
