I left you to cry
I left when you were weak
I had no words to softly speak
I left you with a pain and undefined
I was not myself
Believe inside that I had no more life in me it's true
And all my soul I gave to you
I'm empty man who lost his way
And i will search to find those words for you

And you drive me crazy, you make me mad
I forget the good times that we had
But you are irreplaceable to me
And I'll tell you things you never knew
I'll turn your skies from grey to blue
But you are irreplaceable to me

When you call I'm here but we always fight
You say that I am never right
I say those hurtful things to you
But the pain you feel, I feel it to
You drop to your knees and start to cry
But I will take the blame this time

And you drive me crazy, you make me mad
I forget the good times that we had
But you are irreplaceable to me
And I'll tell you things you never knew

I'll turn your skies from grey to blue
But you are irreplaceable to me

And I hope you realize what you have Cause I tried to give you all I had
But it's over now, it's over now
And i wish that you were in my arms
It's a feeling I've felt from the start
But it's over now, it's over now, it's over now

Drive me crazy, make me mad
Forget the good times
But you are irreplaceable to me

And I'll tell you things you never knew
I'll turn your skies from grey to blue
But you are irreplaceable to me
And you drive me crazy, you make me mad
I forget the good times that we had
But you are irreplaceable to me
And I'll tell you things you never knew
I'll turn your skies from grey to blue
But you are irreplaceable to me
You are irreplaceable to me
You are irreplaceable
