I'm leaving this summer, I want to break out
I'm leaving this drama, That's all you're about
I'm leaving the anger, can anyone see?
This is not me

You're holding too tightly to words that aren't true
And I'm finding myself stuck between all of you
The troubles not ending, you hearts growing cold
And there is no hope
Burning me

I'm leaving forever
How can I take all these problems you're bring me
Now I've lost control
I'm leaving to find all
The things that were right in my life
I'm trying to start this all over

I'm learning to feel, but can you say the same?
I'm learning to get myself out of this game
I'm learning to fix all the rules that they broke
But there is no hope

Holding too tightly to words that aren't true
And I'm finding myself stuck between all of you
The troubles not ending, you hearts growing cold
And there is no hope
Burning me

I'm leaving forever

How can I take all these problems you're bring me
Now I've lost control
I'm leaving to find all
The things that were right in my life
I'm trying to start this all over

Running away
Running away
Running away to find that one
It's never too late
Never too late

Never too late to find that one

And I'm running away
Running away
Running away to find that one
It's never too late
Never too late
Never late to find that one

I'm leaving forever
How can I take all these problems you're bring me
Now I've lost control
I'm leaving to find all
The things that were right in my life
I'm trying to start this all over
