Somebody once said there is a pain in your eyes then i look and see
The reasons inside of me
What i cannot find doesn't hurt my soul
They say but they scream for blood
They're breaking in

It's time to look up
It's time to walk on water
It's time to move cos we haven't got much time left

We've waited long enough
So get up and take back the ground we lost

We've watched for long enough
So run and take this
It's time to take this

Somebody once told me about the pain of God
And they told me that the reason was inside of me they say
What you can't find won't hurt your soul
But can you sit there and just let them break in

And i'm praying for the rain to come
