I've been reaching for your hand,
But you're never there to help me
You'll never understand, Nothings what it seems Yeah it's been a long time tell me but I think I got this right,
Girl you do me wrong but do we really have to fight
Oh though you had me fooled,
I always knew I'd come back to you, always knew I'd come back

Tell me does it hurt when you think of me,
Do your memories sting when you're remembering Yeah you took my world and tore it in two
And I'm so disappointed but I'm not surprised
And I sing I hope you're happy

And I could be better but it would be better to leave it all behind
So I'll watch my mouth while you make up your mind And baby if we don't talk about it then maybe things will change sorry couldn't figure this part out (ends in 'be the same)
So I'll wait until you decide

Tell me does it hurt when you think of me,
Do your memories sting when you're remembering
Yeah you took my world and tore it in two
And I'm so disappointed but I'm not surprised
And I sing I hope you're happy
