Wake Up

I rub my eyes and take in the sight
I decided to leave last night
But I stopped when I saw your face
But only for a second
Because then I realized
You're the only thing that is left here
I don't despise
So I'll pack my bags
I'll run away
I can't promise I'll be back someday
So if you want some reassurance
I'd assure you that it's on it's way but

I could never live this down
And I have got to leave this town
... California... Tennessee...
They're both too far away from me
But... Carolina...
You are all I need tonight
Breakdown
I can't take it anymore, not any more
I can't wait to get back to... Carolina...
Where I know the sun is brighter
Autumns calling
Leaves are falling
I'm coming home tonight
And I could never live this down
And I have got to leave this town
... California... Tennessee...
They're both too far away from me
But... Carolina...
You are all I need tonight
I'm coming home
... Carolina's...
Calling
I'm coming home tonight
I'm coming home
And I could never leave this town
Not as long as you're around
And I could never live this down
And I have got to leave this town

... California... Tennessee...
They're both too far away from me
But... Carolina...
You are all I need tonight
... California... Tennessee...
They're both too far away from me
... Carolina...
You are all I need tonight
And I could never live this down
And I have got to leave this town
