Go!
With all these questions
I'm open to any suggestions
And facing the problems once faken
And I'm keeping the promises maken
Laughing at all the stupid ways that we were acting
I'll always be here to be your friend
And I'll always be here to lend my hand

Peeking through your window all I'm seeing is the grin
on your face
Times that we shared are the only times that I felt safe
Peeking through your window all I'm seeing is the grin
on your face
Times that we shared are the only times that I felt safe

Well I know that you'll be the one to make it
And your future's so bright it has no end
The problems we'll face we'll mend
Missing all the hours we spent kissing
And I wish things could be the same

Scratchin' and a scratchin' and a leachin' and a latchin'
Now I realize that you're gone
Scratchin' and a scratchin' and a leachin' and a latchin'
Now I realize I'm alone
With this pain that I feel
I know that it's real
You think that dealing with my problem is easy

You think dealing with my problem
Dealing with my problem
Dealing with my problem is easy

It ain't easy x11

Peeking through your window all I'm seeing is that grin
on your
Peeking through your window all I'm seeing is that grin
on your
Peeking through your window all I'm seeing is that grin
on your
Peeking through your window all I'm seeing is that grin
on your face
That little grin on your face
That little grin on your face
That little grin on your face
I love that grin on your
