Today I walked down our old street
Past the diner where we meet Now I dine alone in our old seats
The cold wind blows right through my bones And I feel like I'm getting old, but I wish I was getting old with you

I held you're hand when we took shelter from the rain
She laughed as we picked out our childrens names

White sparrows fell from heaven and carried her away Black arrows cut the strings of my heart I kneeld and pray

Her clothes hang in the closet still
The phone sits on the windowsill
And every time it rings it give's me chills My heart just stopped when I was told: doctor, doctor on the phone said my Love was never coming home

I hold you're casket gently walking to the grave Dark clouds eclipse the sun won't shine again

White sparrows fell from heaven and carried her away Black arrows cut the strings of my heart I kneeld and
pray
They gave her one more day, to say the words I couldn't say
I'm crying in pain, crying in pain

And I'm not looking for answers, no I'm not looking for answers
But dear god why did you choose her?

White sparrows fell from heaven and carried her away Black arrows cut the strings of my heart I kneeld and
pray
They gave her one more day, to say the words I couldn't say
I'm crying in pain (crying in pain) crying in pain
Our love will remain, crying in pain
