Keeping secrets and pleasing that person
You are the only one
You always think about Selfishness it is your game it is the game you always play but you know Im coming back to you
Is the game you always play
Lets bring it on
Keeping secrets and pleasing that person

You are the only one
You always think about
And now we say farewell Keep your secrets locked away cause I don't want to hear them
Keep your secrets...cause I don't want to hear them
Cause I don't want to hear them!
