Looks like another day
Slipping through my window shade
Chasing the dark away
Sneaking into my room again
Are you a sad and lonely thing?
Come to steal my piece of mind
The only peace I find
Is pretending that you're still lying next to me

So why why why
The sun has got to shine shine shine
Why don't it just stay away?
Why do dreams have to fade?

[Chorus]
Into all these shades of blue
Where I wait for you
Pray love reaches through
All these shades; shades of blue
When you close your eyes
Feel me by your side
I will wait for you
In all these shades of blue

Thinking back on my mistakes
I can't undo all the days that I misused
I thought that you'd always stay
It's hard to face the simple truth
That time bring no relief
And time is all you need; you said
Had to go and clear out your head
While you're trying to decide if you'll come back to me

So why why why
Do we have to cry cry cry
Tell me why this has to be
Oh, why don't you give into me?

[Chorus]
Baby all these shades of blue
Where I wait for you

Pray love reaches through
All these shades; shades of blue
When you close your eyes
Feel me by your side
I will wait for you
Here in all these shades of blue
Here in all these shades of blue

Why did you have to leave?
Why did you have to set me free?
Why did you have to go?
Why did you have to leave?
Why did you have to set me free?
Why did you have to go?
And why did you have to leave?
Why did you have to set me free?
Why did you have to go?

[Chorus]
Baby all these shades of blue
Where I wait for you
Pray love reaches through
All these shades; shades of blue
When you close your eyes
Feel me by your side
And I will wait for you
In all these shades of blue
Here in all these shades of blue
