"And Black I Turn"

Forgive me Father as well
For in eternal flames of hell
Will be thy christian wife
Took by the cold kiss of a knife

...And black I turn

Aphrodisiac sights in my mirror
Having eyes was my mortal error
Catastrophic clash of devotions
Breeds everlasting lack of solutions

...And black I turn

I refuse to live in your shade
I refuse your soul degradation
At least at flames I won't be a slave
Of eternities of isolation

...And black I turn
