...And the sky was made of blood and tears
...And my heart was full of hell and spears
Lost I am inside her burning sea
While her flames consume the life of me

[Chorus]

Fogo infinito minha alma emerge
Terras do Demo que Deus nãŁo protege
Enquanto os cã©us morrem
Verã³nia rege

...And the sky was like a crown of thorns
For which I bleed, die and reborn
To all who cross this path
Strange domains where life meets death

[Chorus]

...And the sky was no longer there
But if you looked you should know whyrising from her scarlet domains
To hold the ones who love Samhein

You cannot see me, I am the night
You cannot touch the rain inside

[Chorus]
