I've been your lover, I've been your friend,
I've been your faithful, one-woman-man.
I've been your diamond in the rough,
Now you say you wanna polish me up.

Why, why why do you wanna change me now?
Ain't I the one you loved everything about?
You might start missing the old me around,
So why, why, why do you wanna change me now?

I remember you used to like,
Walking with me on my wilder side.
My kind of crazy turned you on,
Do you really want that part of me gone?

Why, why why do you wanna change me now?
Ain't I the one you loved everything about?
You might start missing the old me around,
So why, why, why do you wanna change me now?

Why, why, why, ain't I the one,
You might start missing?

Why, why why do you wanna change me now?
Ain't I the one you loved everything about?
You might start missing the old me around,
So why, why, why do you wanna change me now?
