Lust obsession and patience
That is all there is, and your nasty hiss
Trust is no longer lasting
When i'm gone, you move on
Cause there's a last time for everything
Yea, there's a last time for everything
Power money and broken dreams
That is all you've seen
All fantasies fading
Cause your vision's mean, but please dig in
Cause there's a last time for everything

Yea, there's a last time for everything
Footprints in the window
From someone who's my friend
That will be my doorway
When i'm back again
There's a last time for everything
There's a last time for everything
Yea, there's a last time for everything
Footprints in the window
From someone who's my friend
That will be my doorway
When i'm back again
