"Catch Me If You Can"

Got ahead of yourself and you thought you could fly
You tried to disown the questions that lie
You liked how it felt and you thought you could drive
All on your own on this dotted line
I'll bring in what it takes to make the colors thin
I'm screaming all the way catch me if you can

Got a bottle of hope and you thought you could drown
The memories you hate and swallow them down Got away from yourself and you thought you could smile
But the face that you made just sharpened the knife
