"Sprinkle in the stardust,
Close my eyes and breath it in,
I'm saving all my happy thoughts
And using them accordingly for self-defense

I'll be gone before you wake
Another time, another day
I might be wrong, but that's okay
'Cause this I know, and this I'll take

I've become the greatest
Actor of them all
The town social chameleon
Over in the corner on the wall

And I'll be gone before you wake
Another time, another day
I might be wrong, but that's okay
'Cause this I know, and this I'll take

I took another bite
And then I spit it out
I didn't like the way it tasted in my mouth
You stretched out your hand
And watched me lick my lips
Once again, I've fallen for your tricks

I know it's wrong, but this I'll take

And I'll be gone before you wake
Another time, another day
I might be wrong, but that's okay
Cause this I know, and this I'll take
