I know I don't make things that easy,
Complication is my middle name,
Its nots that easy for me,
Im so afraid,
Can i say sorry?
For everything that comes along with me?
With all the disappointments,
I promise there is something worth keeping.
I don't deserve you for a moment,
What exactly do you see in me?
It must be from the inside,
The surface has just deepened
Can I say Im sorry?
For everything that comes along with me,
With all the diappointments,
I promise there is something worth keeping.
Im sorry, Im sorry, Im sorry!
Im sorry for the person that I could never be,
Its been so hard to show you,
The one you'd like to see,
Im sorry for the weakness,
I wish I could be strong,
I hope someday that I can make up all that ive done.
All ive done
So just carry on.
Can I say Im sorry?
For everything that comes along with me?
With all the disappointments,
I promise there is something worth keeping,
Catch me now im fallin!,
Short of everything,
Im trying to be,
And it's time to notice,
I promise there is something worth keepin'
