Well he's a sweet-talkin' devil, kind of long and lean
A real lady-killer if you know what I mean
A hit and run lover like you never saw
I think somebody ought to call the law

Call the love police
Call the love police
Somebody call the love police

Well he's a smooth operator, think you know the kind
A two-timin' rascal with a one-track mind
But he stole my heart like a thief in the night
When morning came around he was nowhere in sight

Call the love police
Call the love police
Somebody call the love police
Call the love police
Take that man away

He's stealin' hearts and leavin' em all over town
He's a no-good-timin' son of a gun
There's gotta be a law against such foolin' around
Somebody dial 9-1-1

Call the love police
It's a job for the love police
Well he's a real heartbreaker and if I had my say
The love police'll take that man away

He's stealin' hearts and leavin' em all over town
He's a no-good-timin' son of a gun
There's gotta be a law against such foolin' around
Somebody dial 9-1-1

Call the love police
It's a job for the love police
Well he's a real heartbreaker and if I had my say
The love police'll take that man away

Somebody call the love police (hey, hey)
Somebody call the love police (hey, hey)

Somebody call the love police (hey, hey..)
Somebody call the love police
