There goes my dream
Walkin' down the street
With somebody new
There goes my dream

I love him so
He will never know
What he means to me
There goes my dream

I was dreamin' of happiness
A life of togetherness
No more of this loneliness
A love without end

But there goes my dream
Walkin' down the street
With somebody new
There goes my dream

I love him so
He will never know
What he means to me
There goes my dream

I was dreaming of family
Of him growing old with me
Sharing the memories
Of a wonderful life

But there goes my dream
Walkin' down the street
With somebody new
There goes my dream

I love him so
He will never know
What he means to me
There goes my dream

I love him so
He will never know

What he means to me
There goes my dream
