She checks her make-up
Just a touch more round her eyes
Tries her new top fills it out so firm and nice
She's a young girl who wants to look just right tonight
Yes tonight

He drives to meet her
Keeping one eye on the clock
Arrives to early politely drives around the block
She hears the bell ring
Its seven thirty right on time he's on time

Cruisin the town in the heat of the night
Learning their night moves together
He's holding her hand and she's feeling just right
She hopes that the night lasts forever
Cruisin the town on a hot summer night
Makin some night moves together
He's holding her close and he squeezes her tight
She's feeling so right that she's wishing the night lasts
forever
Lasts forever

He puts the top down
Just cruisin to the radio
She gets hungry
He stops and gets some food to go
Such a great night can't waste it in some resturant
Not what they want
She checks her make-up
Then wipes the lipstick from his face
Starts the car up
And combs his hair back into place
Back on the highway
There's still some cruisin left tonight
Yes tonight

Cruisin the town in the heat of the night
Learning their night moves together
He's holding her hand and she's feeling just right
She hopes that the night lasts forever
Cruisin the town on a hot summer night

Makin some night moves together
He's holding her close and he squeezes her tight
She's feeling so right that she's wishing the night lasts
forever

Cruisin the town in the heat of the night
Learning their night moves together
He's holding her hand and she's feeling just right
She hopes that the night lasts forever
Cruisin the town on a hot summer night
Makin some night moves together
He's holding her close and he squeezes her tight
She's feeling so right that she's wishing the night lasts
forever
