Prada purses and expensive tastes
Make up fake out at a New York pace
So career girl, who lives for gold and pearls

Her sunglasses you could see from space
Hiding more than just a mannequin face
Oh career girl, let me in your world

We've got a lot of love
But not a lot of time to make it
This might be your chance
Come on let's take it
We've got a lot of love
But not a lot of time to make it

Do you think she'll find the time for me
In the middle of her eight day work week?
Career girl, let me in your world

We've got a lot of love
But not a lot of time to make it
This might be your chance
Come on let's take it
We've got a lot of love
But not a lot of time to make it
This might be your chance come on let's take it

There's something about the way she says
There's something about me
It's all I need to keep hanging around
(Make it sing Craig, let's go)

We've got a lot of love
But not a lot of time to make it
This might be your chance
Come on let's take it

We've got a lot of love
But not a lot of time to make it
This might be your chance
Come on let's take it (let's take it)
Come on let's take it--oh
