There's a lake beyond the hill
That we all know very well
Our friend Johnny took a spill
That he'll never ever, never ever remember...

Don't you come around here yellin'
(We already heard)
Don't you tell me what you're seein', no

Dancin' almost got him killed
Audience: a few hundred thousand...
Faceplant City gives me thrills
And I'm always gonna, always gonna, always gonna remember.

Don't you come around here yellin'
(We already heard)
Don't you tell me what you're seein'
Ain't no need for conversation
'Cause that dude got pretty messed up

He never knew what hit him...

Your pain is your fame
Your fail is our gain

There's a lake beyond the hill
That we all know too damn well

Don't you come around here yellin'
No, don't you tell me what you're seein'
Ain't no need for conversation
'Cause that dude got pretty messed up

He never knew what hit him
