Right now he's standing at the top
Eyes open, waiting for the next big thing to come along
He's never been so ready to be on his way
And move on to the next big thing to come along

This is his time, it is time to shine
No more backwards, it's time to soar
On his way (x3)

He's strong, strong enough to go
Out on his own and leave you all behind
Within your sad state, yeah
You never thought he'd walk away
But you were wrong
Yes, you were wrong
You were wrong

This is his time, it is time to shine
No more backwards, it's time to soar
Getting closer, closer to it all
One more step and he's out the door
On his way (x3)

He is strong enough to go out on his own
He's on his way
He is strong enough to go out on his own
He's on his way

Getting closer, closer to it all
One more step and he's out the door
On his way (x4)
