Set her free with a bullet in her back.
Our love was picture perfect, but now she's dead she's never coming back
You finally got what you deserve
I'll take it back I swear I'll take it back
Cuz the truth is hard to swallow
The thought of not seeing you again
These words are getting harder now.
Set her free with a bullet in her back.
Leave her for dead.
Cause shes never coming back!
Alright, okay.
Is this not the same as yesterday? (as yesterday!) as yesterday.
Take a look in the mirror, pull yourself together.
The pictures, the pictures, the pictures.
My friend.
Well alright, well okay.
Your just not the same as yesterday (as yesterday) as
yesterday.
A kiss goodbye.
I turn my eye.
