Last time you were mine, I was just a kid
I didn't know there were consequences for what I did
Then at times it was good, though when it got bad
I didn't have much pride, I gave it everything I had.

Cut to today,
I've lived enough to know that love is such a mess.
I have to say that seeing you with someone new has got me pretty curious.

[CHORUS]

Is he gonna kiss you in the rain?
Is he gonna cook on Sunday?
Is he gonna love you?
No, he won't do any of those things.
Is he gonna take you when he goes?
When it's out of his way.
Is he gonna miss you?
No, he won't do any of those things.

No, oh, no, he won't do any of those things.

Remember there was a time when we used to laugh,
You said nobody else could make you do that.
Sometimes I got it right, even when I got it wrong,
I really thought that you meant I was the only one.

Cut to today, I saw you smiling with the diamond on your hand.
I know that this, I can see behind it, you're hiding something you don't understand.

[CHORUS]

Something in me is still with you, do you feel it too?
Something's asking, are you still in my heart? Is this really you?

Oh, you tell them...

Is he gonna kiss you? (No)

Is he gonna kiss you? (No)
No, he won't, no, he won't, hmhhh.
Is he gonna nah nah nah?
Is he gonna nah nah nah?
Is he gonna... He won't do any of those things.

Is he gonna cook on Sunday?
Is he gonna miss you?
No, he won't do any of those things.
Is he gonna take you when he goes?
When it's out of his way.
Is he gonna miss you?
No, he won't do any of those things.

No... No, he won't, any of those things.
No, no, no!
No, he won't do any of those things!
