(Yvonne Devaney)

How many teardrops have I cried over you
A million and one tears a million and two
How many long nights have my arms ached for you
A million and one nights, a million and two.

Loving you my darling, while I thought you loved me
only me
But you were just foolin' and the fool you were foolin'
was me
How many sweet dreams will never come true
A million and one dreams, a million and two.

Loving you my darling, while I thought you loved me
only me
But you were just foolin' and the fool you were foolin'
was me
How many sweet dreams will never come true
A million and one dreams, a million and two...
