(J. Jackson)

I've only got another bridge or two to cross
I've only got another hill or two to climb
I've only got a few more valleys to go through
I've hoped to see the gates of heaven most anytime.

I'm almost home I know I'll soon be there
Then I'll say goodbye to all my troubles and cares
All the pain the tears the heartaches I have known
Will soon be forgotten cause I'm almost home.

--- Instrumental ---

All the pain the tears and heartaches I have known
Will soon be forgotten cause I'm almost home...
