I fell in love on a moonlit night in the blue moon light of old Mexicali
I kissed red lips neath the blossoms of white in the blue moon light and I was so happy Because I was happy I broke the vows I made to another
And I made promises I couldn't keep Now I'm alone in the silent night and as blue moon light touches my pillow I weep

I weep for the heart that I've broken apart and the shame in my soul never die For I promised that I'd be returning but I knew I was saying goodbye
For I wasn't free God forgive me only he knows what I feel inside
Because I was happy...
