(Kay Arnold - Kendall Hayes)

I can't stand to see my baby walk for anything I'd work my fingers to the bone so she could have the best of everything
But she wants more than I can give I know it for so long
I treat her like a baby but she treats me like a dog.

I do little things all the time for my baby Always hoping to see a love light in her eyes
But it don't make no difference she still finds something wrong
I treat her like a baby but she treats me like a dog,

I've done all I know to do trying hard to please
But she's never satisfied till she's got me on my knees
But someday she may need me so I'll keep hanging on While I treat her like a baby and she treats me like a dog.

While I treat her like a baby and she treats me like a dog...
