Uh huh, I'm a fool they say
There's one born every day
Uh huh, I'm a fool
Why must I love you this way?

I spent many sleepless nights praying time would make things right
Hoping someday you would change
But as time goes by I only learn how to cry
I learn how to pay all this pain.

Uh huh, I'm a fool they say
There's one born every day
Uh huh, I'm a fool
Why must I love you this way?

When you say to me I love you do you love me
My prayers were all answered it seems
But when your friends come around you go out and paint the town
Tore down my castle of dreams.

Uh huh, I'm a fool they say
There's one born every day
Uh huh, I'm a fool
Why must I love you this way?...
