

Billy Walker

"In Del Rio"

Visit "In Del Rio" on MotoLyrics.com

(Billy Walker - Ray Wix)

In a village not far from the border of old Mexico
I wandered one night for reasons that I'll never know I guess that the thought of a woman was strong on my mind
And when there's a woman there's always danger behind.

In Del Rio a town that's as cruel as can be Del Rio, Del Rio is this the last place I'll see.

The town was asleep except for one lone cabaret
I ordered tequila and a song that the band would soon play
She grabbed at my coat and said that this dance would be mine
He reached for his knife and I knew that I hadn't much time.

In Del Rio a town that's as cruel as can be
Del Rio, Del Rio is this the last place I'll see.

--- Instrumental ---

I grabbed at my gun and fired as he threw his knife
My bullet went crashing and instantly took out his life
But my movement was slow and his knife went right where he threw She's standing there laughing while I lie here unable to move.

In Del Rio a town that's as cruel as can be Del Rio, Del Rio is this the last place I'll see...

Visit Billy Walker page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.