(Kay Arnold - Billy Walker)

Is this desire that starts me trembling with your every touch

To find a kiss or two is not enough is this desire Is this desire to hold my pillow close and call your name

A moment later then to feel a shame is this desire.

It gives me such a scare to feel the way I do
I've never felt this way before with anyone but you
Is this desire a funny feeling that I have inside
That sometimes makes me wanna run and hide.

Is this desire, is this desire?...
