(Nat Stuckey)

If I thought I could forget you it was my mistake
'Cause you're with me every step and every breath I take
Only you can lose this heartache you're the one who put it there
Just love me now, hurt me later I don't care.

Love me now hurt me later if that's how it's to be
But give me something to remember after you
forgotten me
Loving one who's bound to hurt you isn't fair
Just love me now, hurt me later I don't care.

--- Instrumental ---

Lately I've been more unhappy than I ever been Everytime I turn around you're on my mind again
All this running and not getting anywhere
Just love me now, hurt me later I don't care.

forgotten me
Loving one who's bound to hurt you isn't fair
Just love me now, hurt me later I don't care...
