(Ronnie Self - Dub Albritten)

Now when I'm gone and you're gathered 'round me
My last will, my last will you're dividing apart
Take a bouquet from the flowers that surround me
Take it home, let it wilt like the love in your heart.

I leave my mind to the one that drove me crazy
I leave my eyes to the one that made them cry
I leave my arms to the one that left them empty
I leave my heart to the one who said goodbye.

I leave my mind to the one that drove me crazy
I leave my eyes to the one that made them cry
I leave my arms to the one that left them empty
I leave my heart to the one who said goodbye...
